

Dr. Melissa McCloud is a graduate of Coastal Carolina University where she received a BA in Early Childhood Education. She was a teacher and Assistant Principal within the Horry County School system at Homewood Elementary and North Myrtle Beach Elementary Schools. Dr. McCloud worked for number of years as Principal at Rains Centenary Elementary and Britton's Neck Elementary Schools In Marion School District Seven. She earned her M.Ed Degree in Integrated Studies from Cambridge College, in MA and a M.Ed Degree from USC (Columbia SC) in Leadership and Supervision. Dr. McCloud recently received her Ed.D from Nova Southeastern University. Dr. McCloud spent a number of years working with the SC Department of Education as a preschool curriculum specialist training preschool teachers in various settings such as Headstart, private childcare centers and public school pre k classrooms. Dr. McCloud has also worked for many years as an Adjunct Professor for Coastal Carolina University where she facilitated Senior Level Interns.